500,000 PEOPLE
Throughout the United States & Canadas,
HAVE USED
DR. J. MILLER'S SOOTHING & HEALING
BALSAM,
And cheerfully recommend it to the public as being the BEST FAMILY MEDICINE in the world for all internal and external complaints for which it is recommended. It is fast gaining popular favor, and has already reached extensive sales. All we ask, in order to convince the most skeptical of the powerful efficacy of THIS GREAT REMEDY, is the trial of one bottle, costing only 50 cents, and you will never be without it or hesitate to recommend it to your friends. Sold by druggists everywhere. Every bottle used according to directions is warranted to cure, or money refunded.
The proprietors CHALLENGE THE WORLD to produce its superior as a remedy. Testimonials received daily in reference to the astonishing cures it has performed. It is used and recommended by prominent physicians throughout the country.
It has proven infallible for Burns, Scalds, Frozen Limbs, Bruises, Sprains, Wounds of all kinds, Pains in the side, back or shoulders, Piles, Corns, Chilblains, Chapped Hands, Stiff Neck, Ague in the face or breast, Ear Ache, Deafness, Loss of Motion of Limbs, Poisoning, Erysipelas, Inflammation of the Eyes, Inflamed Irritation of the Skin. For Rheumatism it is not a certain cure, yet hundreds have been relieved by it when other remedies had failed.
AS AN INTERNAL MEDICINE, when taken in season, it will cure Croup, Hoarseness, Sore Throat, Dry Cough, Asthma, Whooping Cough, Canker in the Mouth, Sore Lips, Inflammation of the Bowels, Dysentery, Kidney Complaints and Cholera Morbus.
THE "BALSAM" has also given great relief in many cases of Diphtheria.
No person need fear to use this medicine, as it is purely vegetable in its composition. It is soothing and healing in its influence, and may be given to any age or sex with perfect safety.

TARRANT'S
SELTZER
APERIENT.
Sects and Creeds Differ, but there are no dissenters from the general principle, that a great medicine is a great blessing. We have many of these blessings, but among them all, in the province to which it belongs, no greater than Tarrant's Effervescent Seltzer Aperient.
A column would not suffice to enumerate the ailments for which it is prescribed by physicians of the highest standing. It does not belong to the class derisively termed patent medicines, but is an article based on scientific analysis, and will stand the test of the sharpest and most rigid medical criticism as a cathartic, a stomachic, an anti-febrile preparation, and an admirable remedy for all bilious complaints.
Let there be no mistake. Secure the genuine article only. SOLD BY ALL DRUGGISTS.

Newspaper Gossip.

The New York Herald is valued at $5,000,000, and is owned by Commodore James Gordon Bennett, Jr., having been presented to him by his father.

The Evening Mail was valued by John J. Cisco and two other referees, some months since, at $1,250,000.

The New York Times is valued at $1,500,000. $1,000,000 has been offered for it and refused.

The New York World is valued at $1,200,000. More capital was sunk to make it than any other newspaper ever started in this or any other country; but "pluck" won.

The Tribune is valued at $2,000,000, and could not be purchased for that amount.

The Evening Mail is valued at $150,000. Cyrus W. Field lately purchased one third interest in it for $50,000.

The Evening Telegram is valued at $200,000, and is not for sale.

The New York Sun is valued at $1,500,000, and pays seven per cent. on a larger amount.

The New York Standard is valued at $75,000, and has won success. The Bowens are interested in it.

The Commercial Advertiser is valued at $250,000, but it would take a larger sum to purchase it.

The Journal of Commerce is valued at $500,000.

The Daily and Weekly News are valued at $800,000.

The daily circulation of the News and Sun approximate closer than that of any other two daily newspapers in the city.

The New York Star, Mr. Joseph Howard's paper, is valued at $500,000, but is not for sale.—American Society.

Lectures and Lecturers.

The Transcript publishes the following items in regard to some of our popular lyceum lecturers:

John B. Gough has had wonderful success in California. He is expected home every day. He has a new lecture, not yet completed, which he will probably deliver next season.

Anna Dickinson will give no time to the State of Maine. Her route for the East during the coming lecture season will be confined to the other four New England States.

Mr. Hilary Skinner, the London News war correspondent, is expected here early in October. He witnessed the triumphant entry of the German army into Berlin.

James T. Fields proposes to introduce an original poem into his new lecture.

Rev. Dr. Newman, Chaplain United States Senate, will pass the remainder of the summer in Greenland.

Kate Field is still in England and is busy on a new lecture.

Gen. John L. Swift's humorous lecture, "Twice Told Tales," will keep the audience who may listen in a roar of laughter.

Col. R. H. Conwell is now in the West rusticating.

Mrs. Emily Shaw Gorman is at Nantucket, where she will remain until the last of September.

Mrs. Celia Burleigh has a book ready for publication.

Carl Schurz will devote about a fortnight's time to New England, commencing the last of November. The subject of his lecture is not yet announced.

Mrs. Scott Siddons is in Europe. She will read extensively next winter, and will for the present abandon the stage.

George Vandenhoff is down East, fishing, sailing, revelling among the Hills, etc.

Gen. Kilpatrick is on his farm in New Jersey. He is in great demand for next winter.

Sir Roger Tichborne.

The latest theory about the claimant of the Tichborne estates, and by no means an improbable one, is that he is a natural son of Sir Roger's father, his mother being Sir James Tichborne's cook, Mary Orton, aunt of Arthur Orton. There was in the family of the Tichbornes a negro named Bogle, who perhaps, alone, was in the secret of the natural son of the claimant's father, and like a cunning old negro as he is, went off quietly to Sydney, and there finding Tom Castro, alias Arthur Orton, revealed to him the secret of his parentage and the situation of the title and estate of Tichborne. With this revelation the mystery disappears, for from Bogle and Lady Tichborne, who was easily persuaded to recognize the claimant as her own son, he acquired his knowledge of the history of the real Roger, after his sixteenth year, from which time he resided in England when Bogle was with him almost constantly. The course of public opinion still runs very strong against the claimant as an imposter, but his good natured impudence seems to give the English something of the same charity for him that is felt here for an adventurer of the same gay kind, Jim Fisk. The jury, at the adjournment of the court, were paid forty guineas for their forty days service.

NEWPORT DAILY NEWS.

TUESDAY July 25, 1871.

Morning News.

Friend Enoch Hoag is mentioned as the possible successor of General Parker in the Indian office.

The inquest of the riot in New York was begun yesterday and concluded, a verdict being rendered in accordance with the fact.

The hay crop throughout New England is below the average and only fair in the West. Apples will fall off about one fourth.

The total loss by the explosion at the Washington arsenal, on Saturday, will be about $12,000. The property and stores not consumed are found in a much better condition than anticipated.

The fish commissioners have caused to be hatched at Holyoke, Mass., this summer, about 60,000,000 young shad, and 5,000,000 have been placed in Saugatuck river at Westport, 300,000 in Poquonnock river, in Groton, and the rest have been turned into the Connecticut, and those that survive will be fit for the table in three years.

The Supply of Peaches.

The peaches of this season are extraordinary in quality and profusion. The first of the season came from Georgia and were small and sold at an extravagant price. A few days later Delaware began to supply much better fruit at much less price. Now New Jersey is in full competition and vast quantities arrive daily in the New York markets, and will probably continue to come till the first of October. Monday, forty eight cars of five hundred baskets each, arrived in Jersey city. Tuesday brought seventy seven cars, and the succeeding days still more. In addition to the fruit brought by rail great quantities are transported from Lewes, Delaware, by boat. Last year, a season of uncommon abundance, Delaware alone sent to market 1,220,603 baskets, and unless high winds or violent storms prevail the yield of this year is expected to be very much greater. In some parts of the state a double crop is noticipated, but this is thought to be rather extravagant. Many of the large growers and dealers hire freight cars for the season, for their exclusive use, and in this way five hundred have been hired for the season of the New Jersey railroad. Most of the fruit is consigned to commission merchants. From them they become distributed to small dealers and finally to consumers, who after all profits are deducted get them, according to quality, at 50 cents to $2,50 a basket. The fruit being such a perishable commodity, a rainy time or unusual supply, has such immediate effect on the ups and downs of the market that it is very difficult to fix standard rates. The rain of Wednesday so depressed the New York market that good peaches were sold at 75 cents a basket or 8 and 10 cents a quart.

Do Not Forget Your Pocket-book.

Don Platt, of Cincinnati, is not an encouraging man to trust with a lady, it seems, from an account of a droll misadventure which he gives in the galaxy. He writes:

"I never left a depot yet that somebody was not put under my care. I dont know why this is. I suppose it is something in my countenance; if I knew what, I would have it extracted. I don't like having unprotected females and schoolboys and girls turned over to me. It is a little hard on a man. And what is the good of it? Nobody needs protection; if any one does, it is a benevolent, good looking, innocent sort of man—such as the writer of this.

"I was leaving on the morning train once from Philadelphia when a respectable looking old scoundrel in gold rimmed glasses asked me to take charge of his daughter. She could have taken charge of me. She was thirty if a day, with a face that had been on the offensive for ten years. I'd like to see any man attack that woman; I'd go odds ten to one on the scratch.

"The old fellow seemed to be in a great hurry, and thrusting the lady under my arm, left the cars and drove off. In a thin, angular voice that was meant to be very sweet and was not, she asked me to take her pocket book and get the necessary ticket. I left the car for that purpose, but when I approached the opening where the ticket agent, kept in solitary confinement, maps at the world outside, I found that I had left my pocket book under my pillow at the hotel, and what was worse, my watch with it. I had about twenty minutes, and jumping into a hack I promised the driver ten dollars if he would get to the hotel and back in time for the train. He started off at a furious rate, ran over an apple stand, crippled a venerable gentleman on the corner opposite, and in less than the time stated, I and the driver found ourselves marched off to the station in the hands of the police. We were taken before a corpulent Justice of Peace, who had as much adipose in his head as most men carry about their muscles, and it took the old fellow just two hours to try, reprimand and fine us for our drunken and disorderly conduct. Of course the train went off with my charmer. It went off without her pocket book. I never saw her again, although I made diligent search and advertised in the daily papers. But one fortunate day, some months after, I encountered a male member of her family, who made some serious charges against me connected with the desertion of a lady and stealing her pocketbook. I tried to explain, but failing to get my words in satisfactorily, was forced to make an assault on this male member of her family that ended in some black eyes and bloody noses.

"Now, what was the good of putting that aged female under my care? It only led to her giving me that pocket book and the catastrophe that followed. She could just as well have gone off on the Pennsylvania Central without as with me. The thing is an outrage."

Wendell Phillips.

The Boston Times very correctly shows up the fault finding character of their smooth tongued orator. It says:

Phillips writes slashing editorials for a New York weekly journal from Boston, and pitches into the city where his paper is published after the most savage fashion. What would Wendell do without a grievance? Last week it was the press, the money, the sentiment, the everything else of Gotham. Next week it will be something else. He is in a dead heat against the way things go on there. He believes he could arrange them a great deal better himself. He is a noted character in the arranging line, and his faculty for organization is without a parallel.—Among the rest, Mr. Greeley and the Tribune catch it on the side of the head from his brandished broomstick. Nothing is ever told truly in the Tribune, Phillips thinks, and its theory of reporting facts he assumes to condemn and denounce with a perfect looseness of the rhetoric indigenous to the Phillips garden. What is there that this roaring revolutionist does not know about better than other men? He can govern a State; run the Presidential office; organize a party; put moral principles through; emancipate a whole people; carry on a war; inspire women's conventions; make and unmake statesmen and generals; dictate a foreign policy; incite strikes; lead a mob against the institutions that embody the spirit of humanity; preach on the Sabbath; lecture on last acts—all save the art of—holding his tongue; criticise before the fact; and keep himself as no other man can; like an eternal piece of cinder in the eye of the public. Having earned such testimony, his ambition ought to be satisfied.

Mrs. M. H. Miller of Concord, N. H., a highly accomplished and experienced lady, has accepted the position of Teacher of Reading and Elocution in the State Normal School. She has taught classes in Dartmouth and Brown University, and is connected with the New Hampshire State Normal School.

Arrived.—The French steam er Etoile, Captain Hesterarable, arrived here this morning. She is the tender to the French school ship and is last from Halifax.

Glee Club.—We hope that the concert tonight will be well attended, as singing to an empty house is difficult work. There is no doubt but that the performance will be first class in every respect and all who hear it will pronounce it a rich treat.

Suicide.—A soldier of Fort Adams, by the name of George F. Drake, committed suicide yesterday morning. He had been insane sometime previous but it was thought that he had recovered and was put upon light duty. A coroner's inquest was held yesterday before Coroner Topham and the verdict was rendered that the deceased caused his own death by cutting his throat.

The Seventy First.—This regiment arrived at Newport this morning, at half past four o'clock, in the steamer City of Lawrence. It was their intention to have had a parade through our streets this morning and to have taked His Excellency, Gov. Hoffman, in escort to Providence, but the rain and the absence of the Governor, who is at the present at the mountains, prevented the procession. They left at half past eight for Providence where great preparations have been made to receive them.

A Sad Sight.—Yesterday, in the central part of the city, we had our attention drawn to a young and well dressed couple, one of whom, the husband, was trying to perform the impossible feat of walking on both sides of the street at the same time. The wife was trying to the best of her ability to keep themselves in a straight line, but the husband was in such a state of intoxication that had it not been for the aid of the fence, they would have found it somewhat difficult to get along. Such sights are altogether too prevalent in this city, but not often do we see people of this class staggering along the streets.

Real Estate.—Wm. T. Hall has sold two acres of land, next south of the cliff cottages, to John Kendrick for $36,136.

Thomas Leech 1000 feet of land and buildings on Extension street, to James Hilton, for $900.

Ellen A. Conroy 1935 feet of land and buildings, on Howard street, to Dennis Buckley, for $2,350.

John A. C. Stacy 10,000 feet of land on Houston Avenue, to John Sullivan, for $530.

Robert Smith of Philadelphia to Peleg Hall of New York, villa and about 2 acres of improved land, lower end of Bellevue, for forty thousand dollars.

John Paine of New York to Joseph Simpson of New York, "The Cedars," for seventy thousand dollars.

The Schoolship Minnesota.—This ship with its well nigh three hundred boys in training for sailors, which has been lying in our harbor for several days, has returned to New York. While here the Captain and officers, by their pleasant intercourse with many of our citizens, have won the respect and esteem of all whom they have met.—They have given the "freedom of the ship" to visitors on all proper occasions, and have taked great pains to explain the practical workings of the system under which they are organized. On Saturday, in honor the Mayor, the members of the City Council and numerous other invited guests, including several of our summer residents, went on board and enjoyed the hospitalities of the occasion. They were allowed to witness the various exercises of the boys, many of whom showed a remarkable aptness for their work, and exhibited the results of thorough training and good discipline.—While witnessing these exercises we could not fail to be impressed with the wisdom of the arrangement by which these juvenile representatives of the dangerous classes were brought into subjection to law and order and educated in the ways of well doing. Would it not be well for Rhode Island to imitate the example of Massachusetts and New York, and provide for the future class of offenders by a similar arrangement?

Notes Musicales.—Miss Marie Krebs, the pianist, Signor A. Randolfi, the baritone Senor Sarasate the violinist and Mons. Louis Dachenner have arrived here and taken rooms at 46 Spring street. We do not remember ever having had in our midst, at the same time, such a number of sterling artists and hope they will not give all their time during the season to sea bathing and promenading.

Court of Justices.—Thomas J. Dunne was arraigned this morning, before Justice Ward, upon complaint of City Marshal Read, for procuring money under false pretences, pretendedly for the purpose of purchasing a library for Engine Company No. 7.

The amount charged in the complaint was ten dollars obtained from John Foster, esq., of Le Roy Avenue, which was sufficient to hold the respondent under the penalty, as by statute provided, it being beyond the jurisdiction of this court—so that he may be presented by the grand jury in September, upon evidence.

Mr. Foster was present, and testified that on Friday last the man Dunne called at his residence, and stated his business. Mr. Foster said that he thought the request somewhat a strange one, as there seemed to be libraries enough in Newport, accessible to all classes, to meet all wants in that direction; but, still, after also expressing his strong sympathies for the firemen as a useful and self-sacrificing class, he gave the man ten dollars. Subsequently however, Mr. Foster, in view of the man's manner, and upon serious reflection on the matter, suspected all was not right, and ordered his carriage for town. On the road, he overtook Dunne, and his coachman, who is a native of Newport, informed Mr. Foster, after seeing Dunne, that the latter was not a Newport man—Hence the denouement of the complaint.

Capt. Burdick, of the engine company, was placed upon the stand, and testified that no person was authorized to collect money for the company.

The subscriber's book of names was produced in Court, showing an amount of over three hundred dollars, collected from some of our wealthy and philanthropic residents.

On the first leaf of the book is written the following heading:

"Newport, July 19, 1871.

We the undersigned subscribe the amount annexed to our respective names for to assist in procuring a Library and Reading Room for Hercules Fire EngineCompany."

(Signed)

G. H. Townsend, Secretary. T. G. Burdick, Foreman.

Arnold L. Burdick is the real name of the foreman, and George Dennison is Clerk. So to those who knew, the fraud would have been patent enough.

The first subscription is "Cash $120," in the same hand writing of the heading—of itself a suspicious circumstance.

After hearing the testimony, Mr. Justice Ward adjudged Dunne to be probably guilty, and required him to recognize with sureties, in the sum of twelve hundred dollars, for his appearance for trial before the Supreme Court in September next. Committed to Jail for want of sureties. And so, the bottom has fallen out from Mr. Dunne's speculations, and even a legal Hercules ought not to be able to rescue him at his coming trial, from the just punishment due for his peculations against the engine Hercules. The meanest of all frauds must be that which seeks to obtain money by using fraudulently an appeal to the noble feelings and sympathetic liberality of our benevolent and wealthy residents, thus perverting their readiness to aid in every deserving charity, and thus, also, defrauding those objects of real charity, which may occasionally be brought to their notice.

Owen Sheridan subsequently pleaded guilty of being a common drunkard and sent to the State Farm for six months.

Prof. Tripp's Lectures.—The rare value of Prof. Tripp's lectures, soon to be delivered in Newport, may be gathered from the following letter from Rev. Dr. Sprague, the venerable Albany clergyman:

"I have had the pleasure of listening to Prof. Tripp's lectures on France, and I can truly say that I have been alike instructed and gratified by them. While they abound in vivid descriptions of scenes and objects of which the lecturer was an eye witness, they are full of mature and well digested thoughts, luminously and forcibly expressed that render them peculiarly attractive to cultivated minds. Some of the most competent judges in our city have listened to the lectures with the greatest interest, and speak of them in terms of highest commendation." W. B. Sprague.

Albany, March 12, 1869.

We learn that the lectures have been considerably improved since the above letter was written, and the descriptions brought down to the present moment. The exciting events that have been of late transpiring in Europe, will render the lectures peculiarly attractive at this time.

(For the News.)

Little Compton.

July 12, 1871.

Mr. Editor.—Your correspondent of this week writing of, if not from, Little Compton, seems to have a great love for the tombs, and evidently does not agree with Mr. Longfellow to, "Let the dead past bury its dead."

One might suppose that this town is a good place to be born in and to be buried in. Being an agricultural town it does not of course offer the business advantages of the neighboring cities, but her sons and daughters will understand that when a vacation comes, there is no place to enjoy it like Little Compton. Its visitors are not confined to its own children either, but from all the surrounding cities we have those who are seeking the benefit of a short stay by the sea, where all the advantages of a country life can also be enjoyed. The number of visitors is only limited by the accommodations the people can afford them.

Quite an amount of building is going on indicating that the town has not yet given to feed. The new Methodist church is nearly completed out side, except the spire and you may look over and see that in a few days. Inside, the house is about ready for the masons. The house promises to be one of the finest country churches in this state, and I think your own city of Newport would not object to the erection of its exact model on any of your streets.

Adamsville.

A very pleasant picnic was enjoyed by the the scholars of Miss Mayhew's school, and their friends, on the afternoon of Thursday last. The company assembled at an early hour at the school room, which is by far the best in town, being large, high, and cheerful and furnished with modern school furniture and conveniences, and were entertained by recitations in concert and singing by the scholars. Brief addresses were also made by Rev. J. Mackinsie of Adamsville, and E. G. Babcock of Westport Point and Capt A. F. Howland, of Westport.

At the close of the exercises in the school room the company repaired to the grove near by where tables were found loaded with the good things which the ladies understand so well how to prepare for such occasions, to which were added confectionary, lemonade and ice cream in abundance.

Here for a couple of hours the company enjoyed themselves without restraint, during which time the tables were very materially lightened of their load.

The company was then called to order brief remarks were made by Rev. W. Ela of Little Compton, the school recited in concert Barbara Frettchie, a hearty vote of thanks was given to Dr. White through whose efforts, chiefly, the picnic was gotten up, and the company dispersed highly pleased with the afternoon's entertainment.

Your correspondent heard but one regret expressed and that was that no more of the patrons and friends of the school were present.

This was not designed to be an examination or exhibition of the school, but the recitations given and the maps drawn upon the blackboard by the scholars, gave evidence that with the good material furnished the teacher has labored faithfully.

The district has shown its appreciation of a faithful teacher by retaining her for the past three or four years.

The school closes for its summer vacation one week from today. Visitor.

Received this day, Job lot Gents' Colored Bordered and Plain White Hem-stitched Linen Handkerchiefs, at 31 and 37 1-2c., worth 75 and 87 1-2c., at Annable & Allen's, 213 Thames street. Also Ladies Hemmed Linen Handkerchiefs at 10 cents each.

Midsummer Maladies.

The hot solar rays that ripen the harvests generate many distressing diseases. If the liver be at all predisposed to irregularities, this is the season in which billious attacks may be anticipated. A weak stomach, too, is weakest in the Summer months, and the loss of vitality through the pores by excessive perspiration is so great, that a wholesome tonic, combining also the properties of a diffuse stimulant and gentle exhilirant, is in many cases necessary to health and under no circumstances should be dispensed with by the sickly and debilitated. Of all the preparations intended thus to refresh, sustain, and fortify the human frame, there is none that will compare with Hostetter's Celebrated Stomach Bitters. They have have been recommended from the first as a great medical specific, not as a beverage, and in spite of interested opposition from innumerable quarters, stand after a twenty years trial, at the head of all proprietary medicines intended for the prevention and cure of all ordinary complaints of the stomach, the liver, the bowels, and the nerves. In the unhealthy districts bordering the great rivers of the South and West, Hostetter's Bitters may be classed as the standard one for every species of intermittent or remittent fever. The people who inhabit those districts, place the most implicit confidence in the preparation—a confidence that is increased every year by the results of its operation.

As bitters, so called, of the most pernicious character, are springing up like fungi on every side, the public is hereby forewarned against the dram-shop frauds. Ask for Hostetter's Bitters, see that the label, etc., are correct, and remember that the genuine article is never sold in bulk, but in bottles only.

We learn that Dr. Barker, the Chiropodist, who is on Bellevue Avenue, is meeting with great success in removing corns and other diseases of the feet. He has had the honor of operating upon some of the best families of the place and many of the summer visitors, and all appear to be perfectly satisfied with his treatment. We find that he has operated upon many patients who have employed the most celebrated chiropodists the country affords, and they all speak of him as fully equal to any who have visited the place. And now you that are troubled with these awful diseases of the feet, will do well to call on him at once. Call as soon as possible and employ his treatment for a while, and you will feel as good as new. He can be found on Bellevue Avenue near the Ocean House, between the hours of 9 A. M., and 5 P. M. call and see for yourselves. Prompt attention is paid to all orders at the house of the patients.

Mr. S. Sonsinskie has just received a new lot of Turkish Rugs, the handsomest ever imported into the United States, which he offers for sale at low figures, in Abraham's Block, opposite Bath Road. jy25-3t

25 Dozens more of those Black Grand Grenadines, with Silk Stripes, at 20 and 25c., can be seen at Annable & Allen's, 213 Thames street.

NEWPORT DAILY NEWS

Indian Corn in Illinois.

James Mix writes to the N. Y. Observer under date of May 20th: "The farmers of Ford county have had one of the most favorable seasons that I have known for many years. Indian corn is our staple crop, and farmers have finished planting. One farmer, who resides 15 miles north-west of Paxton, told me ten days ago, that he had already planted 6,000 acres with corn, and he intended to plant 3,000 acres more of old ground. He then intended to break raw prairie, and plant sod corn until July 1st. He has 227 mules on his farm, of 45,000 acres. This farm is managed with as much system and regularity as any manufacturing establishment in New England. The proprietor showed me a statement of the amount of work done on each section of 640 acres, and the average cost per acre, for breaking down old corn stocks ploughing and harrowing the ground. After planting in corn, one section was six tenths and one was seven tenths of one day's work, per acre, for one man and two mules which, at a cost of $3 per day for man and team, would make $2 05 per acre.—Cultivating three times with a man and two mules, thirty cents—90—$2,95. Husking and cribbing—fifty bushels average per acre—four cents, $2.—Cost of cultivation per acre, $4.95.—This farmer will raise, this season, 600,000 bushels Indian corn, at a cost of not over ten cents per bushel. Indian corn is now worth at our railroad stations 42 cents to 45 cents per bushel."

A mathematical chap, who has been examining the big trees in California, and watching a fellow making canes and trinkets out of one of them, say, one of the trees, turned into toys and sold at the prices at which the man and the lathe sell them, would net a sum more than sufficient to pay off the national debt, refund every dollar stolen by dishonest officials, and leave a large sum for contingent expenses.

THE New Orleans, Mobile and Texas RAILROAD COMPANY

Are building a first-class railroad, from Mobile, Alabama, to Houston, Texas, a distance of 475 miles. The stockholders have paid in, and already expended upon the work, nearly TEN MILLION DOLLARS, and two-thirds of the entire road has been built. It is believed that no other railroad corporation in the country has ever made so large an expenditure from its own means, before offering any of its securities to the public.
Among the leading stockholders are HON E. D. MORGAN, HON. JOHN A. GRISWOLD, MESSRS. MORTON, BLISS & CO., J. & W. SELIGMAN & CO., L. VON HOFFMAN & CO., JAMES H. BANKER, HARRISON DURKEE, JOHN STEWARD and other well known capitalists.
The Company now offer for sale the upon that part of the line west of the Mississippi River which is considered so important to Louisiana that state aid, to the amount of $3,300,000, has been granted or guaranteed to the enterprise.

The Bonds are of two classes:
FIRST MORTGAGE BONDS,
to the amount of $12,500 per mile, and
SECOND MORTGAGE BONDS.
to an equal amount, the principal and interest of the latter being guaranteed by the State of Louisiana.—The price of the two classes is the same, and subscribers can take their choice.
The Bonds are only in the denomination of $1,000 or £200 each, interest payable January and July, at the rates of eight per cent. currency in New York, or seven per cent. gold in London, at the option of the holder, at the time each coupon is due. Bonds can be registered if desired.
One thousand dollars invested in these eight per cent. bonds will give the purchaser MORE THAN SEVENTY SEVEN PER CENT. greater annual interest than the same amount invested in the new Government Five Per Cents.
These Bonds are offered for the present at 90, and accrued interest at 8 per cent. currency from July 1 to date of remittance.

ADDRESS TO THE
NERVOUS AND DEBILITATED,

Whose sufferings have been protracted from hidden causes, and whose cases require prompt treatment to render existence desirable: If you are suffering, or have suffered, from involuntary discharges, what effect does it produce upon your general health? Do you feel weak, debilitated, easily tired? Does a little extra exertion produce palpitation of the heart? Does your liver, or urinary organs, or your kidneys, frequently get out of order? Is your urine sometimes thick, milky or flocky, or is it ropy on settling? Or does a thick scum rise to the top? Or is a sediment at the bottom after it has stood awhile? Do you have spells of short breathing or dyspepsia?—Are your bowels constipated? Do you have spells of fainting, or rushes of blood to the head? Is your memory impaired? Is your mind constantly dwelling on this subject? Do you feel dull, listless, moping, tired of company, of life? Do you wish to be left alone, to get away from everybody? Does any little thing make you start or jump? Is your sleep broken or restless? Is the lustre of your eye as brilliant? The bloom on your cheek as bright? Do you enjoy yourself in society as well? Do you pursue your business with the same energy? Do you feel as much confidence in yourself? Are your spirits dull and flagging, given to fits of melancholy? If so, do not lay it to your liver or dyspepsia. Have you restless nights? Your back weak, your knees weak, and have but little appetite, and you attribute this to dyspepsia or liver complaint?

Now, reader, self-abuse, venereal diseases badly cured, and sexual excesses, are all capable of producing a weakness of the generative organs. The organs of generation, when in perfect health, make the man. Did you ever think that those bold, defiant, energetic, persevering, successful business men are always those whose generative organs are in perfect health? You never hear such men complain of being melancholy, or nervousness, or palpitation of the heart.

How many men, from the effects of excesses, have brought about that state of weakness in Sexual Organs that has reduced the general system, so much as to induce almost every other disease—idiocy, lunacy, paralysis, spinal affections, suicide, and almost every other form of disease which humanity is heir to, and the real cause of the trouble scarcely ever suspected, and have used remedies for all but the right one.

Diseases of these organs require the use of a Diuretic. HELMBOLD'S FLUID EXTRACT BUCHU is the great Diuretic, and is a certain cure for diseases of the Bladder, Kidneys, Gravel, Dropsy, Organic Weakness, Female Complaints, General Debility and all diseases of the Sexual Organs, whether existing in Male or Female, from whatever cause originating, and no matter of how long standing.
If no treatment is submitted to, Consumption or Insanity may ensue. Our flesh and blood are supported from these sources, and the health and happiness, and that of posterity, depends upon prompt use of a reliable remedy.

Helmbold's
Fluid Extract Sarsaparilla,
The Great Blood Purifier and Beautifier of the Complexion.

HELMBOLD'S
EXTRACT SARSAPARILLA
Will Radically Exterminate from the System Scrofula, Syphilis, Fever Sores, Ulcers, Sore Eyes, Sore Legs, Sore Mouth, Sore Head, Bronchitis, Skin Diseases, Salt Rheum, Cankers, Runnings from the Ear, White Swellings, Tumors, Cancerous Affections, Nodes, Rickets, Glandular Swellings, Night Sweats, Rash, Tetter, Humors of All Kinds, Chronic Rheumatism, Dyspepsia, and all Diseases that have been Established in the System for Years.
Being prepared expressly for the above complaints, its Blood-Purifying properties are greater than any other preparation of Sarsaparilla. It gives the complexion a clear and healthy color, and restores the patient to a state of health and purity. For purifying the blood, removing all chronic constitutional diseases arising from an impure state of the blood, and the only reliable and effectual known remedy for the cure of Pains and Swellings of the Bones, Ulcerations of the Throat and Legs, Blotches, Pimples on the Face, Erysipelas, and all Scaly Eruptions of the Skin, and Beautifying the Complexion.

HAIR TEA.
A lady writes: "About six months ago my hair was coming out so badly that at every dressing I used to get a handful, which, not wishing to throw away, I laid by in a box. I have two bottles of your Hair Tea, and now I do not get enough to tie the ends of my braids, and have to go to the box for a few hairs for that purpose. I think every lady ought to know what a remarkable Hair Preserver you make."
